

Sri D. DEVARAJ URS.—My point is that the Hon'ble Member who has made the allegations should satisfy the Chair and adduce evidence in support of those allegations. Then it will be allright. Otherwise, if he simply makes sweeping remarks and gets away with them, I do not think the House can allow that. He should be called upon to produce records and tell the House what those specific charges are.

ಶ್ರೀ ಎನ್. ಹುಚ್ಚುವಾಸ್ತಿಗೌಡ (ಹಲಯೂರುದುರ್ಗ).—ನಭೆಯ ಮಾನ್ಯ ಸದಸ್ಯರು ಜವಾಬ್ದಾರಿಯುತವಾದ ಹೇಳಿಕೆಯನ್ನು ಇಲ್ಲ ಕೊಟ್ಟಿರುವಾಗ ಅದನ್ನು ಇವರು ಏಕ್ಸ್‌ಪಂಜ್ ಮಾಡ ಬೇಕೆಂದು ಹೇಳುವುದು ಸರಿಯಲ್ಲ. ಅವರು ಅದನ್ನು ಹೇಳಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಅದನ್ನು ಬೇಕಾದರೆ ಅವರು ಪರಿಶೀಲನೆ ಮಾಡಲಿ ಮತ್ತು ಅದನ್ನು ಕಿತ್ತುಹಾಕಿ ಎಂದು ಹೇಳುವುದು ಸರಿಯಲ್ಲ.

Sri D. DEVARAJ URS.—I repeat it. The person against whom allegations are made is not in the House to defend himself in which event the Hon'ble Member should take responsibility to substantiate the specific charges. He cannot simply be allowed to make wild allegations which cannot get in to the records.

Sri DIGAMBAR RAO B. KALMANKAR (Aland).—If the Hon'ble Minister takes the responsibility of appointing a Judicial Enquiry Committee, he is prepared to adduce evidence. He has spoken with all the full sense of responsibility. It is for the Minister to take note of the allegations and appoint an Enquiry Committee. Otherwise, there is no need to have the remarks expunged.

Mr. DEPUTY SPEAKER.—I will look into the records and examine it.

RULING OF THE CHAIR.

Mr. DEPUTY SPEAKER.—On 21st February 1968, Hon'ble Sri Nanje Gowda objected to a certain proverb in Kannada used by the Chief Minister in his statement. The import of the said proverb is that 'small things should not be made big'. An expression becomes parliamentary or unparliamentary according to the tone and temper in which it is uttered. Good temper and moderation are the characteristics of parliamentary language. Parliamentary language is never more desirable than when a member is canvassing the opinion and conduct of his opponent in debate. There are rulings of our own Assembly that a word by itself cannot be said to be unparliamentary unless it contains some insinuation. The expressions used by the Chief Minister were in a general way to say that small things should not be made big. However, as the Members seem to be objecting to such colloquial proverbs, it is better such proverbs are not used in debate hereafter.

Sri P. F. D'MELLOW (Nominated).—Mr. Speaker, Sir, so much has transpired in this House since the Governor addressed us that it is difficult to deal with his address except to touch on the reference to the law and order situation in the State.
